

Tertiary Worlds

Tertiary Worlds contain a sequence of information originating and in existence prior to our life in the real world. There are three categories of Tertiary Worlds containing tacit information that can be difficult to access:

1. Our ontological (sense of being) heritage; this information can be elicited by asking:
 1. "Where did you come from before you were born?" and
 2. "What was the nature of your being-ness prior to birth?"
2. Our ancestral heritage; this is the information we have inherited from our ancestral lineage.
3. Our spirituality, our cosmological sense of purpose and being.
 1. "What kind of purpose is the purpose you have now?" then
 2. "What kind of purpose was the purpose before you had that purpose?" run this question to the first or pristine purpose.
